

4th of July Party & Member appreciation day

The 4th of July / Member Appreciation day was a HOT day, but that did not stop our members from attending the party in their honor. Everyone had a great time. And we even go our president to cook for all of you. That was worth the price of admission. Oh yeah everything was free.